Ewalu Main Site Accomodations

Who uses our lodging facilities?

A variety of groups come to use these lodging facilities throughout the retreat season. Many are youth groups, men's/women's groups, church groups, church councils, schools, businesses, and many other organizations.

What is there to do at Ewalu?

Winter: cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, hiking, and campfires.

Summer: swimming, hayrides, fishing, hiking, volleyball, and campfires.

There are 10 miles of hiking/skiing trails at our main site. Also, environmental education courses, high ropes, and low ropes are available through the Ewalu staff. Please speak with an Ewalu staff member to arrange these activities BEFORE your stay.

Let Ewalu cook for you.

We are pleased to provide delicious and plentiful meals for your retreat.

Our prices change yearly. To check the current rates, or to ask for more information, please call, email, or stop by our office.
